
Autism Spectrum
Sensory
pinpoint individual sensory difficulties complete a sensory audit plan coping strategies
toys
therapies
fidget items
Communication Skills
language
consider any literal interpretations avoid metaphors, similes and idioms avoid sarcasm
clear and precise instructions support communication Augmentative and Alternative Communication (AAC)
aided systems
technology
use of symbols
communication boards
core vocabulary
unaided systems
sign language
facial expressions
body language
natural gestures
use visual strategies
photos
symbols
schedules
Class Support
clear tasks
achievable
motivate by interests
be clear about changes in routine supply teachers
visitors
special days Quality First Teaching
appropriate differentiation motivate and engage by interests clear, achievable activities Behaviour
identify triggers and support strategies share information
develop strategies
allow cooling-off time
rewards based on interests distractions
praise positive behaviour
use whole-school systems Social Skills
builds awareness
visual support
simple sentences
utilise social situations and comic strips help identify positive/negative choices and consequences ensure rules are understood simple structured twinkl